MOTHER'S DAY LUNCHEON - 13 MAY 2014.

You are specially invited to join the Association President, Dr Yvonne McIntyre, at the Association's Mother's Day Lunch meeting to be held at the Sydney Masonic Centre on 13 May.

The Association is privileged on this occasion to have as its Guest Speaker, MW Bro Rev Raymond Green, AMC, Past Grand Master, Past Senior Chaplain with the NSW Ambulance Service. MW Bro Green will speak on "Chaplaincy in the NSW Ambulance Service."

MW Bro Green was appointed as the first full time Senior Chaplain with the Ambulance Service of New Sought Wales. His appointment followed a period of ten years as a volunteer Ambulance Chaplain. During his time with the Ambulance Service he was responsible for lecturing probationary Paramedics and Patient Transport Officers in stress management and bereavement, as part of their initial education. He retired from that position in December 2011.

This will be a most in interesting address by a person whom we admire for his caring attitude and his services to Freemasonry.
