

ANZAC DAY 2015 MASONIC WREATH LAYING CEREMONY

When: 25 April 2015
Where: Cenotaph, Martin Place Sydney
Time: 0700 hours

The Freemasons' Association (NSW & ACT) Annual Masonic Wreath Laying Ceremony at the Martin Place Cenotaph on ANZAC Day takes on a special significance in this centenary year of the landing at Gallipoli by the Australian and New Zealand Army Corps.

Wreaths will be laid by the Grand Master, MW Bro Commander Derek J Robson, AM, RAN Ret'd and the President of the Freemasons Association, RW Bro Ross McAlpine, PJGW

Brethren, their families and friends are invited to join the Grand Master and the President of the Freemasons' Association, at this special ceremony. Please note that Masonic regalia will NOT be worn; however, service dress, if applicable, would be most appropriate. Service medals should also be worn.

The Masonic contingent will assemble on the Martin Place/Pitt Street corner of the old GPO at 0700 hours under the control of the Parade Commander, RW Bro Major Douglas James, RFD, Ret'd, PJGW, and March to the Cenotaph for the wreath laying ceremony at 0715 precisely.

The President, NSW Masonic Club, RW Bro Graham Berry, PAGM, has again made the facilities of the Club available for light refreshments for those attending the ceremony. The second floor will open at 7.30 am and it shall be appreciated if those intending to return to the Club would inform the secretary RW Bro Alan Farrell, email afarrell@bigpond.net.au; telephone (02) 9525.6391 by 22 April 2015.
