Her elegance, sophistication and warmth, together with her strong, stirring voice, have won her fans everywhere she has performed.

In recent years, Kerryn has changed her genre of music and now utilizes her trained mezzo soprano voice to present musical theatre songs, showstoppers and classics. The transformation has won Kerryn rave reviews and award nominations

The Daily Telegraph writes: "Diminutive she may be, but she's got a voice that travels – seemingly without effort – to the back of the room..... Every consonant and vowel comes over crisp and clear, carried by a voice that soars and dips as gracefully as a bird." (Margot Pitkin – The Daily Telegraph, Australia)
